BEHIND THE PICKET FENCE

(Launches second show: "Vintage and Handmade Marketplace")

Huntington Beach, California, February 24, 2011- Behind The Picket Fence announces its launch of their second show: "Vintage and Handmade Marketplace- Girls Shopping Day" on Saturday, April 30, 2011 at The Old World Village in the city of Huntington Beach from 9-3.

This marketplace will feature different artisans from our local community and provide a platform for those sellers who do not have their goods in a commercial shop. Customers can come shop over 50 unique vendors selling handmade items, antiques and vintage goods while enjoying some good food and a glass of wine! This show will also feature a "pamper me" area to help celebrate Mother's Day!

Behind The Picket Fence are sisters: Jennifer Hulick and Kimberly Topete. You can check out the latest show information on their blog at www.behindthepicketfencemarketplace.blogspot.com and follow them on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Behind-The-Picket-Fence/149693171718163>.

A mom of triplet boys and a teacher with a passion to put her creativity to work, has a goal to make this show just as successful as the last!
